

INTERCULTURAL DIFFERENCES AND SIMILARITIES

GROUP 6

ESTONIA

Estonian holidays are mostly based on the Western Christian calendar and Protestant traditions. Notable among these is Jaanipäev. We have 3 months holiday during summer. Besides that we also have 2 weeks of winter holiday.

Estonians and Slovenians both earn on average €1130 a month.

Estonians and Slovenians have borrowed a lot of words from Germany.

SLOVENIA

In Slovenia we have 2 month holiday during the summer. Then we have 1 week holiday every 2 months. School grades go from 1 to 5, 5 being the best and 1 being the worst.

Slovenian, Estonians and Germans all work 8h a day on average. Slovenia, Estonia and Germany are participants in the Paris Agreement.

GERMANY

Punctuality is a high priority for Germans as well as their dedication to good planning and time-keeping. In Germany we have 1.5 months holiday during summer. We also have 2 weeks' holiday in spring, in winter and at Easter. School grades in Germany reach from 1 to 6, where 1 is the best grade and 6 is the worst grade.

The average working time in each one of the three countries is roughly 40 hours per week, which is about 8h a day.

On average students spend roughly 30 hours a week in the school.

